Who?

Students grades 9-12th AND College age/young adult. 9-10th grade teens should have local mission experience. Families/parent are encouraged to experience this adventure together and may bring younger students. 8th grade students are eligible if they completed Confirmation and are accompanied by a parent.

When?

College Trip: March 19-24

High School Trip: April 1-6

What?

A missions and cultural adventure to Tijuana, Mexico during Spring Break 2010. Our team will work with the local orphanage, Tijuana Christian Mission, to complete construction projects around the Tijuana Campus orphanage. We will also be implementing the next step in researching how to build adobe mud brick houses in Tijuana. The team will experience a visit to the new orphanage in Rosarito, women's shelter, as well as local shops and beaches. All participants must plan on growing in leadership, discipleship and missions. This is an extremely challenging adventure.
